SUNDAY AT VESPERS

Our Father. Hail Mary.

ψ.
O

God, ✠ come to mine assistance. R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spi-rit. As it was in the be-ginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Alle-lu-ia.

The following is sung from Septuagesima Sunday until Easter in place of Alleluia :

Praise be to thee, O Lord, King of e-ternal glo-ry.

℣. O Lord, direct my prayer.

℟. As incense in thy sight.

Canticle of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Luke 1, 46–55.

The antiphon for the Sunday is sung.

My soul ✠ doth magnify the Lord.

And my spirit hath rejoiced * in God my Saviour.

Because he hath regarded the humility of his handmaid; * for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

Because he that is mighty, hath done great things to me; * and holy is his name.

And his mercy is from generation unto generations, * to them that fear him.

He hath shewed might in his arm: * he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath exalted the humble.

He hath filled the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away.

DOMINICA — SUNDAY

He hath received Israel his servant, * being mindful of his mercy:
As he spoke to our fathers, * to Abraham and to his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is now repeated.

Oration.

O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee.

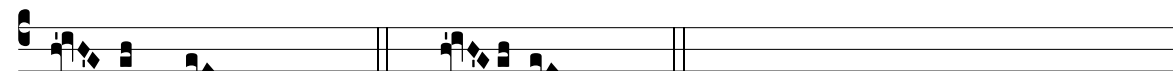

The Oration for the Sunday is sung to the tone given on p. 68, and after that if any Simple Feast falls on the same day, its commemoration is sung next. Finally, the Commemorations on p. 70 are sung, with the Commemorations of Saint Mary, Saint Joseph, the Apostles, and the Patron of the Church in order of their dignity and the Commemoration of Peace taking last place. After this final Oration the following is repeated:

O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee.

Throughout the year:

I
L ET us bless the Lord R. Thanks be to God.

During Advent and Lent:

IV
L ET us bless the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

M AY the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. R.

Amen.

If Compline follows Vespers, Grant, Lord, a blessing is sung straightaway after May the souls of the faithful has finished. Otherwise, if the Office finishes here, a silent Our Father is said.

The lector begins:

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Blessing.

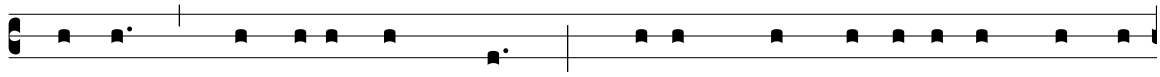

May the Lord almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end. Amen.

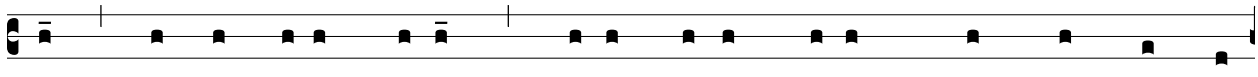

Chapter.

1 Peter 5, 8-9.

rethren, be sober and watch: because your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about seeking whom he may devour: whom resist ye, strong in faith. But thou, O Lord, have mercy on us. ℣. Thanks be to God.

℣. Our help ✠ is in the name of the Lord.

℣. Who made heaven and earth.

An Our Father is said, entirely secret. Then the Confession is made:

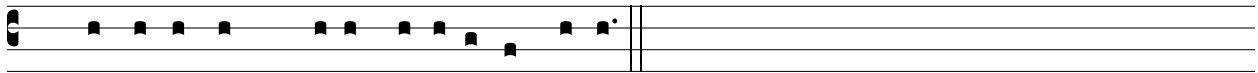

AD COMPLETORIUM — COMPLINE

I confess to almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, striking the breast through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to life everlasting. R. Amen.

May the almighty ✠ and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution, and remission of all our sins. R. Amen.

Then, making the sign of the cross on one's breast with the thumb, the following is sung out loud:

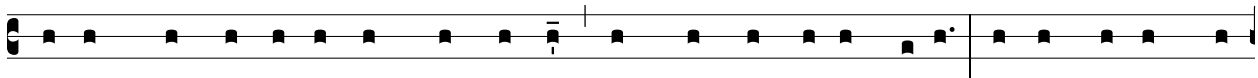

Ps. Convert us, ✠ O God our Saviour.

R. And turn away thine anger from us.

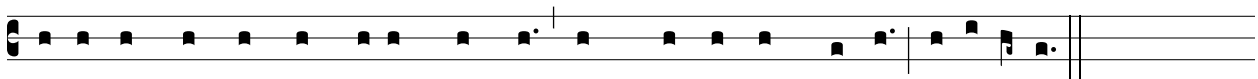

Ps.

O God, ✠ come to mine assistance. R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spi-rit. As it was in the

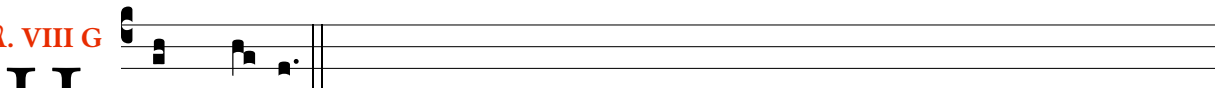

be-ginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Alle-lu-ia.

The following is sung from Septuagesima Sunday until Easter in place of Alleluia :

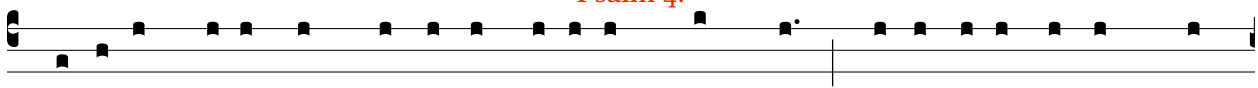

Praise be to thee, O Lord, King of e-ternal glo-ry.

AD COMPLETORIUM — COMPLINE

Prayers.

The following Prayers are always said except on Double Feasts and during Octaves. During Advent, Lent and on Ember Days, when Prayers are also said at Vespers, they are said kneeling.

L Ord, have mer-cy.  Christ, have mer-cy. Lord, have mer-cy.

O UR Father. secret until

 And lead us not into temptation.  But de-li-ver us from e-vil.

I believe in God. secret until

 The re-surrection of the body.  And life everlasting. Amen.
 Blessed art thou, O Lord, God of our fathers.  And worthy to be praised and glorious for ever.
 Let us bless the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.  Let us praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven.  And worthy to be praised and glorious and exalted above all for ever.
 May the almighty and merciful Lord bless and keep us.  Amen.
 Vouchsafe, O Lord, this night.  To keep us without sin.
 Have mercy upon us, O Lord.  Have mercy upon us.
 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us.  As we have hoped in thee.

O Lord, hear my prayer.  And let my cry come unto thee.

The Oration is sung to the Simple Tone, as on p. 69.

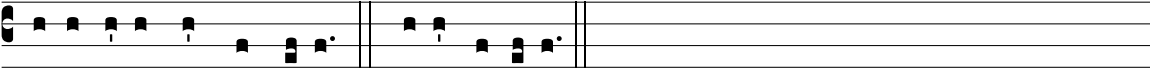

Let us pray.

Et non dicitur Fidélium ánimæ, sed immediate canitur una ex Antiphonis finalibus Beatæ Mariæ Virginis, cum Versu suo et Oratione, quæ in p. 73 notantur. Postea concluditur :

℟̃. Divinum ✠ auxílium máneat semper nobíscum. R̃. Amen.

Deinde dicuntur secreto Pater noster, Ave María et Credo.

AD COMPLETORIUM — COMPLINE

Visit, we beseech thee, O Lord, this dwelling, and drive far from it all snares of the enemy: † let thy Holy Angels dwell therein to keep us in peace, * and may thy blessing be always upon us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

Ps. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee.

II
L ET us bless the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Blessing.

M AY the almighty and merci-ful Lord, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Ho-ly

Sp-irit, bless and keep us. R. Amen.

The May the souls of the faithful departed is not said, but one of the final Antiphons of the Blessed Virgin Mary is sung with its Verse and Oration. These are noted on p. 73. Afterwards the Office is concluded thus:

Ps. May the divine ✠ assistance remain always with us. R. Amen.

Then the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Creed are said secretly.

CHANTING THE PSALMS IN ENGLISH

The English Psalm Tones used here are based as closely as possible on the Latin ones. The structure of the English language means that some modifications must be made however. In brief, each tone has a certain number of cadential notes or note groups at the middle and end of each verse. For example, Psalm 113 is sung to the Peregrine Tone. I have adapted the Latin Peregrine Tone into a six-note cadence in the middle of the verse and a four-note cadence at the end. The tenor notes have been separated from the cadences by a || symbol. Note that the cadences may begin with the same note as the preceding tenor note, which is what happens in both half-verses here. Notice also that the last “note” of the end cadence is actually a sequence of two notes:

Amice qui legis,
De caritate tua
Ora pro animabus
Cornelii et Margarethæ Stockermans
atque
Aurelii et Angelæ Horatii.
Requiem æternam dona eis Domine,
Et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Requiescant in pace.
Amen.
