Because he that is mighty, hath done great things to me; * and holy is his name.
And his mercy is from generation unto generations, * to them that fear him.
He hath shewed might in his arm: * he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath exalted the humble.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He hath received Israel his servant, * being mindful of his mercy:
As he spoke to our fathers, * to Abraham and to his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is now repeated.

Oration.

O Lord, hear my prayer. Ṛ. And let my cry come unto thee.

The Oration for the Sunday is sung to the tone given on p. 82, and after that if any Simple Feast falls on the same day, its commemoration is sung next. Finally, the Commemorations on p. 84 are sung, with the Commemorations of Saint Mary, Saint Joseph, the Apostles, and the Patron of the Church in order of their dignity and the Commemoration of Peace taking last place. After this final Oration the following is repeated:

O Lord, hear my prayer. Ṛ. And let my cry come unto thee.
