When Israel went out of Egypt, * the house of Jacob from a barbarous people:

Judea was made his sanctuary, * Israel his dominion.

The sea saw and fled: * Jordan was turned back.

The mountains skipped like rams, * and the hills like the lambs of the flock.

What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou didst flee: * and thou, O Jordan, that thou wast turned back?

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams, * and ye hills, like lambs of the flock?

At the presence of the Lord the earth was moved, * at the presence of the God of Jacob:

Who turned the rock into pools of water, * and the stony hill into fountains of waters.

Not to us, O Lord, not to us; * but to thy name give glory.

For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake: * lest the Gentiles should say: Where is their God?

But our God is in heaven: * he hath done all things whatsoever he would.

He hath blessed the house of Israel: * he hath blessed the house of Aaron.

He hath blessed all that fear the Lord, * both little and great.

May the Lord add blessings upon you: * upon you, and upon your children.

Blessed be you of the Lord, * who made heaven and earth.

The heaven of heaven is the Lord's: * but the earth he has given to the children of men.
