DOMINICA — SUNDAY

Canticle of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Luke 1, 46–55.

The antiphon for the Sunday is sung.

MY soul ✠ doth magnify the Lord.
And my spirit hath rejoiced * in God my Saviour.
Because he hath regarded the humility of his handmaid; * for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
Because he that is mighty, hath done great things to me; * and holy is his name.
And his mercy is from generation unto generations, * to them that fear him.
He hath shewed might in his arm: * he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath exalted the humble.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He hath received Israel his servant, * being mindful of his mercy:
As he spoke to our fathers, * to Abraham and to his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is now repeated.

Oration.

O Lord, hear my prayer. Ṙ. And let my cry come unto thee.

The Oration for the Sunday is sung to the tone given on p. 56, and after that if any Simple Feast falls on the same day, its commemoration is sung next. Finally, the Commemorations on p. 58 are sung, with the Commemorations of Saint Mary, Saint Joseph, the Apostles, and the Patron of the Church in order of their dignity and the Commemoration of Peace taking last place. After this final Oration the following is repeated:

O Lord, hear my prayer. Ṙ. And let my cry come unto thee.

AD COMPLETORIUM — COMPLINE

An Our Father is said, entirely secret. Then the Confession is made:

I confess to almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, striking the breast through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to life everlasting. R. Amen.

May the almighty ✠ and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution, and remission of all our sins. R. Amen.

Then, making the sign of the cross on one's breast with the thumb, the following is sung out loud:

V. Convert us, ✠ O God our Saviour.

R. And turn away thine anger from us.

V.
O

God, ✠ come to mine assistance. R. O Lord, make haste to help me. Glo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spi-rit. As it was in the be-ginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Allelu-ia.

The following is sung from Septuagesima Sunday until Easter in place of Alleluia :

Praise be to thee, O Lord, King of e-ternal glo-ry.

CHANTING THE PSALMS IN ENGLISH

The English Psalm Tones used here are based as closely as possible on the Latin ones. The structure of the English language means that some modifications must be made however. In brief, each tone has a certain number of cadential notes or note groups at the middle and end of each verse. For example, Psalm 113 is sung to the Peregrine Tone. I have adapted the Latin Peregrine Tone into a six-note cadence in the middle of the verse and a four-note cadence at the end. The tenor notes have been separated from the cadences by a || symbol. Note that the cadences may begin with the same note as the preceding tenor note, which is what happens in both half-verses here. Notice also that the last “note” of the end cadence is actually a sequence of two notes:

Judea... || 1 2 3 4 5 6, * Israel... || 1 2 3 4.

Bold text represents a syllable that uses up two notes of the cadence. Underlined text represents more than one syllable that share a single note of the cadence:

Ye mountains, || that ye skipped like rams, * and ye hills, like || lambs of the flock?

Bold and underlined text can overlap, as well:

Not to us, O || Lord, not to us; * but to thy || name give glo-ry.
